PROPERTY ASSESSMENT APPEAL BOARD EXTENDS APPEAL DEADLINE TO JUNE 1

On April 2, 2020, the Property Assessment Appeal Board (PAAB) exercised its jurisdiction under Ministerial Order M086 to extend the statutory filing deadline for appeals to the PAAB from April 30 to June 1. The PAAB's Order can be found here. This statutory deadline comes from section 50(3) of the Assessment Act, relating to the right of appeal from the Property Assessment Review Panel to the PAAB. This extension will allow local governments, and all other property owners, who wish to file property assessment appeals to the PAAB, additional time to file their appeals. We will issue further bulletins as the implications of this extension becomes clearer.
